

Declaration of consent for the use of photographic images of the undersigned in the working environment:

Dear Sir and Madam,

We would like to ask you, to sign following declaration of consent for the use of photographs of your image for the photography project "Teamwor/Zusammenarbeit".

This international project has been initiated by the City of Bocholt, Germany, and the GrenzBlickAtelier (gallery and photo studio situated in Bocholt) along with the Bocholt West Technical College and will include all twin and partner towns of Bocholt.

The intent is to portray working people in their typical working environment in their hometowns. These towns are Bocholt (Germany) and the twin / partner towns such as Akmene (Lithuania), Aurillac (incl. Arpajon-sur-Cère, France), Bocholt (Belgium), Rossendale (Great Britain), Wuxi (People's Republic of China) und Aalten (The Netherlands). The ultimate ambition is to conduct this project together with young people – with young photographers and media presenters from the Technical College.

Herewith I grant permission to be photographed in my work environment. Further I grant permission that photographs in which I am recognisable can be used and published within the scope of the international twin town photo project "TeamWork/ZusammenArbeit". This includes press releases, information flyer, project information via digital media, the touring photo exhibition and the publication of the book "TeamWork/ZusammenArbeit" .

I am aware that the use of photos will continue over an extended period. I have also been informed that the City of Bocholt and GrenzBlickAtelier are solely responsible for their own releases, publications and Websites. The City of Bocholt and GrenzBlickAtelierare are not liable for the use in any shape and form of their Internet pages by third parties, e.g. the downloading and subsequent use of images by third parties.

This is a voluntary agreement.
